

The Cahn-Hilliard equation and CMC surfaces.

Matteo Rizzi

Universidad de Chile

Abstract

I will talk about the relation between constant mean curvature surfaces and the Cahn-Hilliard equation. In particular, I will present some new solutions to the Cahn-Hilliard equation whose nodal set is close to some suitable given CMC surface with a finite number of ends.