On some approximation problems
in the theory of polynomial Julia sets

Marta Kosek (Jagiellonian University, Kraków, Poland)

Warszawa, 25th May 2023

Abstract

We approach polynomial Julia sets from the point of view of their Green functions. Klimek's metric Γ is defined with use of the Green functions. We use it to address some approximation problems concerning polynomial filled and composite Julia sets.