

Optimization of selected control systems with differential operators of fractional orders

Rafał Kamocki

University of Lodz

Abstract

In the talk, we shall consider optimal control problems containing an integral cost and a control system described by fractional derivatives of a different type (in the Riemann-Liouville, Caputo and Hilfer sense). We give the necessary and sufficient optimality conditions for such problems. To illustrate the obtained results, we give two examples.